PROJECT APPLICATION AND CASE REVIEW PROCESS

1. Pre-Development Meeting with staff: We strongly suggest you set up a pre-development meeting with the planning staff to find out if there are any zoning, engineering, fire safety or technical issues which could prevent your application from being accepted or which could add unforeseen expense to your project. Please call the Community Development Department at (928) 722-7370 or FAX (928) 627-2707 to schedule your appointment.
2. Mandatory Pre-Application Review Meeting: Once you have completed your application, please schedule an appointment with the planning staff. At this meeting, the application will be reviewed for completeness. This meeting should be scheduled several working days prior to the submittal deadline.
3. Submittal of Application: Applications must be submitted on / by specific days for scheduling on a City Board of Adjustment, City Council or Planning & Zoning Commission Agenda. A list of meeting dates and application submittal deadlines can be obtained from the Community Development Department. You or your agent must submit your completed application PRIOR TO the deadline date.
4. Staff Research / Public Notification: The Community Development Staff will perform background research and will contact various agencies and departments to ask for comments about your application. Also, property owners within 300 feet may be notified for certain applications and a legal advertisement will be placed in the Yuma Daily Sun for the public at large.
5. Meeting – To Review Preliminary Staff Report: Once the preliminary staff report is completed, the planning staff will arrange to meet with you. At this meeting, their recommendation is presented and discussed. You are given several days after this meeting to provide any new information you may have before the staff completes the Final Staff Report.
6. Final Staff Report: Once the Final Staff Report is completed, a copy is delivered to the applicant and appropriate Commission, City Council or Board about seven days prior to the meeting where it will be presented. Upon request, any member of the public or the media may also examine this report.
7. Public Hearing / Meeting: A Public Hearing / Meeting is held by the Commission, City Council or Board to vote on your application. At this hearing, you or your agent may speak. Members of the public will also be invited to give their opinion regarding your application per the legal advertisement that was published.
8. Board or Commission Decisions: For Variances or Appeals, the Board of Adjustment makes the final decision. For Rezoning, Road/Alley Abandonment and Subdivisions, the Planning and Zoning Commission makes recommendations to City Council who make the final decision. For Conditional Use Permits, the Planning and Zoning Commission makes the final decision.
9. City Council Decisions: The City Council will hold its own public hearing if a protest is received about a rezoning, abandonment or subdivision application.

TEMPORARY USE PERMIT APPLICATION CHECKLIST

- ✓ APPLICATION. Please print or type the information requested on the application.
- ✓ PROPOSED USE DESCRIPTION. Please attach a description of the special conditions and circumstances, which exist on the property requiring the need for a temporary use permit.
- ✓ SITE PLAN. Please provide a 24"x36" reproducible drawing at an appropriate scale showing the size and shape of the property, all existing buildings, fences, easements, zonings, etc. with distance to all property lines. All buildings on adjacent property that lie within twenty (20) feet of the property must be shown. An electronic version of the drawing is also required.
- ✓ WRITTEN CONSENT. Consent of all contiguous property owners is required. If all contiguous property owners do not consent to the proposed use the applicant may apply for a Conditional Use Permit.
- ✓ SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION. Please provide any additional information to lend support to your request.
- ✓ APPROPRIATE FILING FEE.
